
Agile Gibbon

(Hylobates agilis)

Status: Endangered

Threats: Loss of habitat due to deforestation for oil palm and coffee

What country does it live in? Indonesia, Asia

Where does it live? Lowland rainforest (preferred) and swamp forest

How long do they live? 32 years

What do they eat? Fruit, leaves, flowers, animal prey

How big are they? As big as a cat

How do they talk? Great call, with lots of different sounds depending on the situation

Who do they live with? Couples with young

What do they do? Females have territory and couples sing together

How do they walk? Swinging by their arms walking on two legs on branches or ground

Where would you find it? In the day, in the trees

MASC:

Monkeys Acting in Schools for Conservation

www.monkeysinschools.org