
Blue-Eyed Black Lemur

(Eulemur macaco flavifrons)

Status: Vulnerable

Threats: Loss of trees and hunting by humans

What country does it live in? North West Madagascar, Africa

Where does it live? Rainforest and plantations

How long do they live? 27 years

What do they eat? Fruit, seeds, leaves, animal matter, flowers (that bloom at night), nectar, mushrooms and millipedes

How big are they? As big as a cat

How do they talk? Purr when they are groomed

Who do they live with? Many males and females. More males than females. Groups can join at night

How do they walk? On four legs with some dangling by back feet for feeding

Where could you find it? At night and day in the trees

MASC:

Monkeys Acting in Schools for Conservation

www.monkeysinschools.org