Dear Members of the European Parliament,

Re: Clear labelling of vegetable oil.

Thank you for listening to the views of those you represent about the labelling of vegetable oil, significantly palm oil in products in the EU. The commitment of the European Parliament to enforce the labelling of the origin of oils allows consumers to make ethical choices about what products they buy.

This has been the first step to conserving many species in rainforests in South America, South East Asia and Africa. Species like the Roloway monkey may be saved from extinction.

Thank you again,

Yours Sincerely,
